PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy Halloween members and guests! The Anaheim Art Association's October meeting is on Wednesday, October 28 at 7:00 p.m. at the Anaheim Downtown Community Center at 250 E. Center Street.

Come and be treated to a wonderful demonstration by artist Carmen Daugherty as well as some sweet treats for your tummies!

To members entering our monthly competition please check in from 6:30-7:00.

Please we want to see our members' faces at the meeting. I hope to see you there!

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 28 @ 6:30 PM

CARMEN DAUGHERTY

Carmen Daugherty is an avid watercolorist and urban sketcher. Since she retired from teaching elementary school students in 2019, she has been able to devote most of her time to her daily art practice.

When Carmen is not outside plein air sketching with friends she is in her studio painting in watercolor or sketching in her sketchbook journal. She has studied with Urban Sketchers Stephanie Bower, Shari Blaukopf, and Suhita Shirodkar and watercolor artists Brenda Swenson, Richard Scott and Julie Crouch.

Carmen's plein air paintings have been juried into the Laguna Plein Air Painters association and her water-color florals have won awards at Mid Valley Arts League and South Bay Watercolor Society. She enjoys walking, Pilates, studying Italian and Spanish and traveling.

Carmen lives in Seal Beach, California with her husband Jerry. Carmen's artwork can be viewed on Instagram at www.instagram.com/carmenldaugherty Carmen is excited to share her sketchbooks with you all!
